

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
SOUTHERN DIVISION

REGINALD EDWIN BOSSIER

PLAINTIFF

VERSUS

CAUSE NO. 1:08-cv-408-LTS-RHW

STATE FARM FIRE AND CASUALTY COMPANY

DEFENDANT

MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT
REGARDING “ACCIDENTAL DIRECT PHYSICAL LOSS”

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, by and through counsel of record, and files this his Motion for Partial Summary Judgment Regarding “Accidental Direct Physical Loss” and for cause therefore would show unto the Court the following, to-wit:

1.

Plaintiff's home was substantially destroyed by Hurricane Katrina, to the extent that demolition was required.

2.

At the time of the loss, Plaintiff was insured by State Farm under a policy covering “accidental direct physical loss” to the dwelling and totaling $409,452.00. (Exhibit 1 at pp. 41-42).¹

3.

The Hurricane Katrina loss to the home constitutes an “accidental direct physical loss” and all is covered unless State Farm can prove the applicability of a valid exclusion as to any part.

¹This amount includes Option ID and inflation factor additions.

4.

The undamaged portion of Plaintiff's home which was required to be demolished likewise constitutes an "accidental direct physical loss" shifting the burden to State Farm to prove the applicability of a valid exclusion.

5.

Plaintiff's contents were insured, according to State Farm, for a maximum amount of $255,907.00. (Exhibit 1 at p. 45).²

6.

The policy covers personal property loss caused by a "windstorm."

7.

All of Plaintiff's personal property is covered unless State Farm can prove the applicability of a valid exclusion.

8.

While issues of fact exist concerning the applicability of a valid exclusion, no genuine issue of material fact exists on the question of whether Plaintiff's damage constitutes an "accidental direct physical loss" caused by a "windstorm."

9.

Plaintiff is entitled to partial summary judgment on Plaintiff's claims of coverage for all Hurricane Katrina losses, including demolition of the undamaged portion of the building, leaving only the remaining issue of the applicability of a valid exclusion to be tried.

²This amount includes Option ID and inflation factor additions.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court will enter partial summary judgment declaring that Plaintiff's damage from Hurricane Katrina constitutes an accidental direct physical loss covered by the policy, that demolition of the undamaged portion of Plaintiff's dwelling constitutes an accidental direct physical loss covered by the policy, and that Plaintiff's loss of personal property constitutes a loss caused by "windstorm." Other issues would remain to be tried, including whether State Farm can meet its burden of proving the applicability of a valid exclusion as to any portion of Plaintiff's loss, punitive damages, and other damages issues. Plaintiff prays for such other and further relief as may be deemed appropriate.

THIS the 7th day of August, 2009.

Respectfully submitted,

REGINALD EDWIN BOSSIER
